31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For they preach but they do not practice."

The scribes and Pharisees may be the ones Jesus was speaking about in today's Gospel, but we must be careful not to dismiss his words when it comes to our own actions.

Jesus offered a difficult challenge to those honor-seekers that we must also heed when he said, "The greatest among you must be your servant." This is not the way the world usually works.

Generally speaking, the idea of being a servant is considered inferior to being someone who has risen to high levels of leadership or status. But Jesus wants people in positions of authority to selflessly serve those over whom they have influence. And he insists that the leaders who establish laws, rules, and guidelines do not excuse themselves from following their own directives! "Practice what you preach," as the saying goes.

Whether or not we have extensive public influence, almost all of us at certain points are in a position to exercise leadership--with our children and families, with classmates, coworkers, neighbors, friends, and sometimes strangers. When these moments arise, we are called to step into this role without being hypocrites. It's important to be sure we don't issue unrealistic demands on others that we ourselves would find it burdensome or even impossible to fulfill. This requires the virtue of humility. Instead of reveling in the authority we may have at any given moment, instead of creating "heavy burdens hard to carry and lay[ing] them on people's shoulders," we need to be ready and willing to walk a mile in their shoes, and lead accordingly. And Jesus tells us clearly that this servant leadership will be rewarded, for "whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Our America Needs Fatima Rosary Rally was spiritual and peaceful.

The turn out was about thirty sweet souls in union with Jesus and Mother Mary. We all gathered around inside the Gazebo in a very intimate setting. It was a very caring, sweet ceremony trusting in Mary's promises of intercession for the healing of America.

St. Charles Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist

We wish to thank those who attended our recent meeting. If anyone was unable to come, please be sure to get in touch with Marth Corkery at the parish office martha.corkery@portlanddiocese.org so you can update your information for the ministry. You can also call Martha at the parish office 725-2624. Thank you for your willingness to serve!

The second collection this weekend at St. Mary Church is for The Corporal Works of Mercy Society of St. Mary's Church - a 501(c)(3) non-profit that works with other local service agencies to provide emergency heating and housing assistance to our neighbors in the Bath area. The Davenport Trust Fund has generously agreed to match funds donated dollar for dollar (up to $7,500) during this heating season. Donation checks for this special collection should be made payable to All Saints Parish and put in the second collection basket. We will be present at all Masses at St. Charles Borromeo Church the weekend of November 4th&5th, and 11th&12th. Please look for the colorful posters and table in the Narthex. Your donations are sincerely appreciated by MCHPP, SJP, and those receiving baskets.

Thanksgiving Food Basket Collection
November 18th and 19th at St. Patrick's

In 2013 the Ecumenical Food Pantry assumed the responsibility of providing Thanksgiving baskets for those in need. In 2016, 178 families in 10 towns in Lincoln County received baskets. St. Patrick's and other community churches and civic organizations are invited to donate to this cause. What they need are:

- Monetary donations (more valuable because the Food Pantry can purchase 3 times as much from the Good Shepherd Food Bank as a donor can at a local market)
- Canned vegetables                      Cranberry sauce/jelly
- Stuffing mix                                      Canned pumpkin

This collection is in place of our monthly Food Pantry Collection on the weekend of November 18th & 19th, although we will accept donations all during the month of November. Thank you for helping our neighbors in need during the holidays.

CHURCH & FAMILY LIFE

Let's clear away the cobwebs!

Sunday November 5 will be clean up day at St. Ambrose. We'll start after mass and lunch will be provided in place of hospitality. Contact Diane, Jeff or Andy with any questions. Our numbers are listed in the Finance and Pastoral Council section.

Coffee and Snack Fellowship following daily Mass at St. Charles Borromeo Church, that used to be on Wednesdays, will happen every Tuesday (instead) in order to not conflict with book groups.

We Hope to See You at the Fair!

The Shamrocks of St. Patrick need your assistance! The craft fair is scheduled for November 18th from 9:00am to 3:00pm. We need volunteers to continue making this a success. We have openings for various positions. Beginning October 28th, stop by the Narthex and talk to one of the Shamrocks to find out how you can help. Sign-up sheets will be available. We will also be looking for volunteer bakers for our "From Our Ovens" table. If you would like to provide baked goods for this event, please stop by the Narthex and sign up.

"Over-59 Lunch Bunch"

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Catholic have a vocation that is received at Baptism. This vocation is to be an apostle – a messenger of the good news. So, all the baptized parishioners of All Saints Parish are on the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) team. The community should always be ready to give those who are searching for Christ a little help! When I became involved with the RCIA ministry at St. Charles, I was pretty aware of my own vocation, But I didn't think much about the community involvement. This was a big mistake! Announcing the good news and providing help to the seekers is primarily the role of the whole parish community. All of the followers of Christ have the responsibility of spreading the faith according to their abilities. How can All Saints Parish members be good "team members"? Here are a few suggestions:

Give evidence of the spirit of the Christian community. The seekers should be able to see in the actions of the parishioners what they believe being Christian means.

Set up home invitations. Parishioners could welcome the seekers into their homes for coffee, lunch, dinner or some other family event.

If we could all be encouraged to take one of these initial steps, simple but powerful actions that show our apostolic vocation, what a wonderful change we would see in our seekers and in our community.

Stay tuned for more suggestions!

FMI please contact: Marcy Brenner (St. Charles, St. John & St. Ambrose) at 725-2624 to join us. Contact at the other Churches are: Cheryl Ivens 633-5608 at Our Lady Queen of Peace; Gloria Ouellette 737-8252-at St. Mary. For children: call Amy Ford – 725-2624.

It was a beautiful day of celebration.

Mrs. Polizotto with Art News

We have been celebrating fall and honing our drawing techniques in the art room this month. In K-2, we have drawn or painted monsters with a color scheme, drawn pumpkin in 3D, and done leaf rubbings and prints. Grades 3 and 6 have worked hard on a new type of self-portrait, a personal map. They designed a map that had places they love to go and, symbols of their favorite things or favorite life events.

Grades 4, 7 and 8 have been practicing the art of drawing in perspective. They have designed landscapes with houses (haunted and regular) in perspective. Perspective can be shown by changes in size, color, and overlapping.

Grade 5 studied Picasso and his cubist portraits and created their own. They reviewed color schemes when they painted their faces. The fifth grade is now learning about how to create value with a variety of lines and color.

The students are anxiously waiting for their Square1 fundraiser orders to come back! Each student will receive an order form with an original piece of art on it for family to order on a variety of products. From pillowcases to coffee mugs, there is something for everyone. Students in grades 1-8 had a choice of what to make for their artwork and did a great job! Grade Pre-K and K drew fancy designs and put their silhouettes on them.

Rainy day weather doesn't slow down recess at SJCS!

Volunteers Needed: Give A Helping Hand to an Isolated Senior!

SEARCH (Seek Elderly Alone, Renew Courage & Hope) is a local program based right here in our own community and administered by Catholic Charities Maine. SEARCH matches volunteers one-on-one with seniors who may live alone to provide companionship, transportation, and assistance with errands or household projects. We are expanding into the Boothbay peninsula this fall! We currently have unmatched clients many towns in Sagadahoc and Lincoln County as well as the greater Bath/Brunswick/Harpswell area. Contact: Chris Szalay, Program Coordinator at 837-8810 or cszalay@ccmaine.org.
