32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps."

The foolish versus the wise. Today's parable sets these two groups in stark contrast to one another.

Two crowds of young women wait for a wedding feast. One group comes prepared for the unexpected, the other just assumes everything will go according to schedule. But it doesn't! The Bridegroom is late, and the foolish virgins are left out in the dark--literally--while the wise ones enjoy the feast inside. The lesson here is not just about having foresight and gathering the corresponding equipment. It's about being ready for the second coming of Christ. Jesus himself is the "Bridegroom." Traditionally we refer to the Church as the "Bride of Christ" and we, as the people of God who constitute the Church, are even now awaiting the real feast, the culmination of time when Jesus returns. But are we standing among the wise or the foolish as we wait? Jesus tells us today, "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Are we spiritually awake? Do we have extra oil to see us through, or are we hitting the bottom of the barrel and running on spiritual fumes so to speak? Do we think it's enough to do the bare minimum as we wait for Christ--stepping into church without really being present, or calling ourselves Christian without really taking up the challenge of the cross? In order to avoid standing outside the feast with the foolish, we will want to make sure we fill our flasks with oil or, in other words, fill our hearts with the love of God, fill our minds with his word and his teachings, and fill our souls with the virtues that unite us to his will. If we stock up on these important supplies, we can count ourselves among the wise!

Dig in and help pave the way.

Need a gift for that special someone or the person who has everything? Give a gift that keeps on giving.

SECOND COLLECTIONS

THIS WEEKEND

We have completed our 2nd match! In addition to this great news we also received just over $28,000 in donation since our Ceremonial Ground Breaking! The event was joined by many parishioners and guests of honor including Fr. Frank Murray and three of our Honorary Chair members, Marcel Doyon, Leon Laffely and Sr. Angela Krippendorf. Fr. Murphy began the ceremony with a heart-felt testimony to his time since he came to All Saints Parish and he spoke about the tremendous talent we are so fortunate to have on our building committee. Fr. Frank Murray gave a site blessing and blessed the ground with holy water while the crowd raised their hands in praise to Jesus and all of the good that has been bestowed upon us. The support and excitement from the crowd was overwhelming and really set the tone for a successful event. The parish would like to thank the following parishioners who spent countless hours planning and executing our event. We cannot thank you enough for your leadership and support!

November is the month set aside to remember those who have gone before us to the Lord. Our churches will have a Book of Remembrance to write the names of your deceased loved ones in so as a community we remember them at our Liturgies during the month. All Souls Envelopes will also be available at our churches to drop in the regular collection basket during this period. Names of deceased loved ones written on these envelopes will be remembered at Parish Masses throughout the coming year.

The Sacrament will take place at St. Charles in Brunswick at the regular 4 PM Mass on Saturday November 18th All those wishing to be anointed are welcome to attend.

SOCIAL JUSTICE & PEACE

Our Lady's Warm Space!!!

The Warm Space community luncheons will be on Mondays, from 11:30 to 12:30 at Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church. All are welcome. The luncheon is free. Donations are welcome.

MidCoast Hunger Prevention Program
Thanksgiving Baskets collection:

The Social Justice and Peace Committee will once again be collecting donations to purchase food items for the Thanksgiving baskets they are distributing this year. We will be present at all Masses at St. Charles Borromeo Church the weekend of November 11th&12th. Your donations are sincerely appreciated by MCHPP, SJP, and those receiving baskets.

Thanksgiving Food Basket Collection
November 18th and 19th at St. Patrick's

In 2013 the Ecumenical Food Pantry assumed the responsibility of providing Thanksgiving baskets for those in need. In 2016, 178 families in 10 towns in Lincoln County received baskets. St. Patrick's and other community churches and civic organizations are invited to donate to this cause. What they need are:

- Monetary donations (more valuable because the Food Pantry can purchase 3 times as much from the Good Shepherd Food Bank as a donor can at a local market)
- Canned vegetables Cranberry sauce/jelly
- Stuffing mix Canned pumpkin

This collection is in place of our monthly Food Pantry Collection on the weekend of November 18th & 19th, although we will accept donations all during the month of November. Thank you for helping our neighbors in need during the holidays.

St. Ambrose will be doing 4 Thanksgiving food baskets this year. Please pick up a tag at the back of the church and return the items by Sunday November 19. Thank you for your generosity.

CHURCH & FAMILY LIFE

We Hope to See You at the Fair!

The Shamrocks' Craft Fair will be held Saturday, November 18th from 9:00am to 3:00pm in Cheverus Hall at St Patrick Church. Please support this fundraising event for our church and our school.

Bakers can bring their items to Cheverus Hall on Friday, November 17th between 10:00am and 3:00pm. You can also drop off baked goods during the fair.

Admission is free and all adults will receive a free raffle ticket for our Thanksgiving Basket.

"Over-59 Lunch Bunch"

at St. Charles Borromeo Church Hall On Monday-November 20th at 11:30 a.m. If you enjoy socializing and fellowship while sharing lunch with others in the community, this is for you.

There is no cost but an RSVP will be much appreciated for planning purposes. Please call Ursula at 725-0714 or Connie at 725-4736. All welcome!

A tremendous thank you to all who helped in any way with this years' St. Charles Christmas Fair. We will let you know soon how financially successful the fair was, but please know that it was socially successful and a most enjoyable event for all who attended! Thank you! Thank you!!

Let's clear away the cobwebs!

Due to the storm, please not the date change to Sunday November 12 will be clean up day at St. Ambrose. We'll start after mass and lunch will be provided in place of hospitality. Contact Diane, Jeff or Andy with any questions. Our numbers are listed in the Finance and Pastoral Council section.

Live nativity at Our Lady Queen of Peace. December 2nd from 4-5:30 pm: Any children or young adults who would like to be a part of this tradition are invited to come and help us present this tableau. Bring shepherd or angel costumes if you have them or come and use ours. Must be old enough to stand still and sing for 1/2 hour.

WANTED: Three Wise People! Requirements: 1 hour of time to dress up as a wise person. Costumes provided! Please be at the Church by 3:30 PM in order to receive your costume. If you would like to be a part of this annual tradition, please call the church office at 633-2680.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Catholic have a vocation that is received at Baptism. This vocation is to be an apostle – a messenger of the good news. So, all the baptized parishioners of All Saints Parish are on the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) team. The community should always be ready to give those who are searching for Christ a little help! When I became involved with the RCIA ministry at St. Charles, I was pretty aware of my own vocation, But I didn't think much about the community involvement. This was a big mistake! Announcing the good news and providing help to the seekers is primarily the role of the whole parish community. All of the followers of Christ have the responsibility of spreading the faith according to their abilities. How can All Saints Parish members be good "team members"? Here are a few suggestions:

- Give evidence of the spirit of the Christian community. The seekers should be able to see in the actions of the parishioners what they believe being Christian means.
- Set up home invitations. Parishioners could welcome the seekers into their homes for coffee, lunch, dinner or some other family event.

If we could all be encouraged to take one of these initial steps, simple but powerful actions that show our apostolic vocation, what a wonderful change we would see in our seekers and in our community.

Stay tuned for more suggestions!

Read the Gospel and Color

Sharing the Gospel: Make sure your heart is ready for Jesus. One day Jesus will come back. If your heart is empty and dark - without love - you will be left out. But if your heart is filled with God's love for other people, Jesus will bring you into heaven with him forever. Prayer: God, fill my heart with your love. I want to be ready for Jesus. Something to Draw: Draw a picture of yourself helping your parents set the table because you love Jesus. Mission for the Week: As a family, go through your closets and drawers. Take out all the clothes you don't wear anymore. Then donate them to charity.

Join us for a Blessing of the Manger and Lighting of the Advent Tree at St. Mary Church on Sunday, December 3, at 3pm. A time of prayer, song, and good will to celebrate with joy the opening of this holy season preparing for our Savior's birth. We will gather outside the church (rain or shine) near the Statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Cookies, Coffee and Hot Chocolate will be served after in the parish hall. Hosted by the Special Believers of All Saints Parish. Special Believers is comprised of All Saints Parish families with members with special needs and abilities, as an outreach to any child or adult in our parish with special needs. For more information, please contact Amy Ford.

Bishop Deeley Visits SJCS

The students, faculty, and staff were happy to welcome Bishop Deeley on Friday, November 3rd. We celebrated morning Mass together and then Bishop Deeley visited each classroom, Pre-K--8. He chatted with each group of students, and answered several questions.

Questions spanned many topics and themes, some serious. One fifth grader asked Bishop Deeley "What Heaven will be like?"

"Heaven is to be with God. You are in the presence of love. We use the imagination and thought processes that we have on earth to try to think about what that would mean. We do know we will be with God because we have in our lives already lived with God. We live in God's love and share that with one another. We will be happy in Heaven. I'm not telling you it has gold streets and beautiful houses. For us, the most important thing is that we will be with God," said the bishop.

Thank you Bishop Deeley for another great visit! We hope you stop by again soon!

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

DIOCESAN

From today's 1st Reading, Wisdom 6:
"Resplendent and unfading is wisdom and she is readily perceived by those who love her and found by those who seek her."

Why does God allow abortion, assisted suicide, poverty etc? Because it is good for us. It forces us to seek truth, goodness, mercy and God himself.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA

The Daughters of Isabella will meet next in December for our annual Christmas gathering. We will be holding our Christmas Party at JR Maxwell's in Bath on Thursday, December 12. More details will come either at the next meeting or in the mail. Please note the change of night for our meeting; it will not be on our regular schedule of 2nd Wednesday of the month. Congratulations to our new slate of Officers for the current term. Interested in joining our organization? Contact our Regent, Judy Michaud, at tomandjudy3@comcast.net

Consider Yourself Invited! The Shamrocks of St. Patrick meet on the first and third Thursday of each month at 1:00 PM in the Parish Center. Please consider joining one of our meetings to meet us and to learn what we do. We look forward to meeting you!
