Palm
SUNDAY

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it.
And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Palm Sunday

Our humanity bleeds through today's Gospel passages in more ways than one. We see both elation and fall, hope in the midst of the darker sides of our natures. If we allow it, these Gospels hold a mirror to our own fickle hearts. The crowds cry

"Hosanna" and the Apostles profess allegiance unto death. In a manner of days -- even hours -- Jesus is betrayed, abandoned, denied, condemned, tortured, and executed. As God, he could have stopped this horrific narrative from unfolding, but he doesn't. He allows free will to play itself out.

There are nearly two millennia between this spectacle and us. We can stand safely removed, if we choose. But Lent invites us to return to this story. Lent invites us to find ourselves in the people we encounter there. Are we the repentant woman at Bethany? Are we naysayers of such lavish piety? Have we acted in a way that betrays those we love or denies what we know to be good and true? Have we fallen asleep in our faith? Have we unfairly accused others of a crime or immorality we imagine, though perhaps they didn't commit? Do we help others carry their burdens? Do we stand in solidarity with those who suffer? Do we care for the dying?

This week, take up today's Gospel again. Look carefully at the Passion narrative and sit with it in silence. Find yourself in the story and ponder its meaning for your own life. Journey with Jesus to the foot of the Cross so that you too may say, along with the faithful centurion, "truly this man was the Son of God!"

New St. John's Catholic School Envelope

In an attempt to support our parish Catholic School, we have added a donation envelope to the monthly Church Budget offertory envelopes. Although we do not have a designated second collection for this envelope, we encourage all of our parish families to consider a donation of any amount to support the operational needs of St. John's Catholic School. All envelopes can be passed in through the offertory during any Mass and the funds will be distributed to the school as we receive them. If you are not using envelopes and would like to start, please call the parish main office. Thank you for supporting our Parish Catholic School!

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Marcy.brenner@portlanddiocese.org
207-725-2624

All Saints Parish Rite of Christian Initiation participants are moving along in the process. They have gone through the liturgical rite called The Rite of Election which is a memorable event for those entering the Church. For the first time they experience the Church not only on the parish level but also on the diocesan level, along with many others from the diocese who will be entering the Church at the upcoming Easter Vigil. Catechumens coming into the Church are now the elect. Having completed the period of formal instruction, they prepare more intensely through prayer experiences and spiritual contemplation of the paschal mystery. They now turn their attention to interior reflection and conversion. To impress upon the elect the Importance of self-discipline, the period of purification and enlightenment is marked by the scrutinies. Held on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent, at a Sunday Liturgy, the scrutinies include exorcisms, prayers for strength to be faithful to the gospels. The elect kneel, and the community prays for them. Since those coming into the Church are preparing for full participation in the liturgy, they are presented with the two basic traditional prayers of the Church, The Creed and The Lord's Prayer. They are encouraged to pray these prayers regularly. These two presentations are scheduled for Wednesday evenings, March 7th and March 14th. At 7:00pm at St. Charles Church. All are invited to attend to pray, encourage and welcome our new members. The presentations are one-half hour in length. Please consider a prayer card to any of our participants. You will find a picture and short bio either on a poster or bulletin board in our Churches. These cards can be given to Marcy Brenner at St.

Small Faith Sharing Sessions
