Easter Sunday

The first light of Easter dawn had begun to creep over the horizon. The steadfast women from Friday's gory events are returning again to the body of their Lord. "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" How quickly we return to mundane concerns and how thoroughly God wants to surprise us! Imagine the utter shock upon seeing the stone rolled away, the tomb empty, and a stranger clothed in light proclaiming the impossible. "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here." He is risen indeed and the world will never be the same.

We know from other Gospel passages that Mary Magdalene made haste to the disciples to proclaim the Good News. We know that Peter and John rushed to the tomb to see for themselves. We know that the wonder and awe of the Resurrection permeated the lives of the apostles until their own dying day.

Can we comprehend the utterly world-changing nature of this surprise? The historical reanimation of a dead man is of no real value to us. But we know that Easter Sunday is so much more. By the Resurrection of Jesus, life has triumphed over death for us all. The gates of heaven are opened and the treasury of graces is poured out upon the here and now. This Resurrection Day, let us draw near, amazed yet unafraid, to the risen Christ. Let us recall the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Jesus is not a character from the past. He lives, and he walks before us as one who is alive, he calls us to follow him, the living one, and in this way to discover for ourselves the path of life" (Easter Vigil, April 15, 2006).

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8

St. John Paul II said, "There is nothing that man needs more than Divine Mercy – that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights of the holiness of God." From the diary of a young Polish nun named Sr. Faustina Kowalska, a special devotion of the mercy of God is spreading throughout the world.

Join us at St. Mary's
Sunday, April 8, for a Holy Hour,
Confession,
Benediction 2:30 – 3:30 p.m.
A reception will follow.

SOCIAL JUSTICE & PEACE

Bread for the World

Who Experiences Hunger?
Poverty is the major cause of hunger. In the U.S., hunger is not caused by a scarcity of food, but rather the continued prevalence of poverty. To the surprise of many, most Americans (51.4 percent) will live in poverty at some point before age 65. That means any one of us — or our friends or family members — may be affected.

YOU CAN HELP – Our Spring Offering of Letters is scheduled for Sunday, May 6th.

Please participate by signing letters to our US Congressman and Senators.

Serve Lunch at Midcoast Hunger Prevention Program (MCHPP)

Join with other parishioners in this fun and meaningful work on occasional Saturday mornings. Our next dates are May 26, June 2 and June 30. To volunteer contact Mary Hobson at hobsonm@link75.org or 207-751-3923.

Tidbits from our Title I Specialist

Reading is thinking. Help your child be an active reader. (Watch for strategies to help your child understand what she/he reads.)

Strategy 1....Make Connections

Connecting what your child already knows while she reads helps sharpen her focus and deepens her understanding. Show her how to make connections by sharing your own connections as you read aloud. Maybe the book mentions places you've been together on vacation. Talk about your memories and how they made you feel. Invite your child to share their memories.
What does this book remind you of?

Can you understand how the character was feeling? Why?

Does this book remind you of another book?

What do you know about the topic?

Remind your child that readers make all kinds of connections as they read.
