Second Sunday of Lent

As we march through Lent, it can be easy to think it's all about sacrifice. No chocolate, no alcohol, no meat on Fridays. Yet here, only in the second week of Lent, we have the story of the transfiguration. This reading reminds us of the "why" behind what we do. We don't fast from dessert to lose weight. We don't donate money or serve others because it's merely a nice thing to do. Lent is about transformation! Peter, James, and John trudged up the mountainside behind Jesus. This must have been a difficult hike, because when they reached the top, "Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep." Despite our best efforts, perhaps we, too, can be asleep to the deeper meaning of the Lenten season. Jesus is transfigured while they slumber, but eventually they become "fully awake, [and] they saw his glory and the two men standing with him."

This is no small thing! The disciples witness Jesus in his divine splendor and see the miraculous apparitions of Moses and Elijah. The entire mountain becomes a spiritual breakthrough. "A cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud." These symbols are present in the Old Testament. They are present on Mount Sinai when Moses prayed alone and received the 10 Commandments. Elijah had a similar experience when he prayed alone before God. But here are ordinary men, former fishermen, who have been drawn up into an adventure beyond their wildest expectations. Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah, the fulfillment of all that came before. But Christianity is not the religion of the elite, where only the select few are allowed to participate. We are all invited into spiritual transformation. Lent is a privileged time for this!

Ignatian Prayer Adventure Retreat

Loyola Press invites you to join an online Lenten retreat called An Ignatian Prayer Adventure. This is an adapted version of the Spiritual Exercises based on the longer retreat in The Ignatian Adventure by Kevin O'Brien, SJ. The retreat begins the week of Ash Wednesday and continues through Holy Week and the first week of Easter. We hope that this retreat will provide you with an opportunity for spiritual renewal as you participate in the reflections and exercises.

Lenten Alms Change Lives

CRS Rice Bowl is the Lenten program of Catholic Relief Services, the official relief and development agency of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Through CRS Rice Bowl, faith communities in every diocese throughout the United States put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Lenten alms donated through CRS Rice Bowl support the work of CRS in roughly 45 different countries each year. 25% of all donations to CRS Rice Bowl stay in the local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Since its inception in 1975, CRS Rice Bowl has raised nearly $300 million.

Every Thursday at 10:30am downstairs in the conference room. All are welcome to attend.

Small Faith Sharing Session

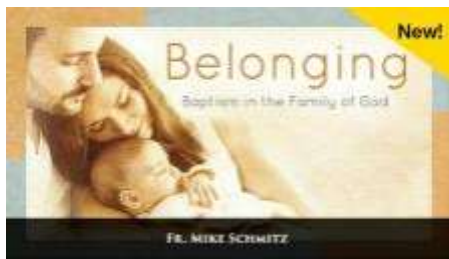

This group meets every other Thursday evening from 5:30 - 6:30pm in the St. Charles Library. We read the upcoming Sunday scripture readings and share how they pertain to us individually. Our next session is March 21st. Please join us at any time to determine if this is an opportunity for growth in your faith life.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (also known as the RCIA) is the normal way that adults become full, active, participating members of the Catholic Church. We have informal sessions, attend weekend Mass, and become involved in outreach projects. Special rites are celebrated during the Sunday liturgies at various times throughout the year. Adults involved in the process may be dismissed each week after the homily to go and reflect on the Scriptures they have heard. The RCIA involves the whole parish in prayer, in hospitality, welcoming, and in specific ministries such as sponsors, or dismissal leaders.

The most important thing about the RCIA is that it is not merely a new way to prepare adults for baptism, baptism is only one step. The goal of the process is full communion, which means "full, conscious and active participation" in the Eucharist and in the whole life of the Catholic faith community.

Persons who want to join the Catholic Church who have already been baptized in another Christian church will not be rebaptized. They will be guided to a deeper familiarity with Catholic teachings and prayer through a process adapted to their needs and concerns of Christians from another faith tradition. FMI or answers to your questions: Marcy Brenner (St. Charles, St. John, St. Ambrose & St. Mary's) at 725-2624; Cheryl Ivens (Our Lady Queen of Peace) at 633-5680.

Belonging - Baptismal Preparation in All Saints Parish

All Saints Parish offers an opportunity for expectant parents in preparing for the baptism of their child and supporting their child in their faith development. We have created two teams, one at St. Patrick's Church and one at St. Charles Borromeo Church. The goal of the sessions and the following reflection experiences are to provide our expectant parents and their families with the support of other parishioners and our broader faith community in establishing a family that encourages growth in faith. Though the teams have structured time frames that may appear a bit different, both groups hope to offer support and a sense of belonging to not only the children to be baptized, but for the families as well. To register please call the parish office at 725-2624.

ENCOUNTER ANNET

In Uganda, we encounter Annet and her family, children forced to flee violence, searching for stability. How are we called to welcome the stranger in our midst? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Sharing the Gospel: One night when Jesus prayed, Jesus showed Peter, James and John what he would look like in heaven. Jesus' face changed and his clothes glowed brightly. Jesus even talked to Moses and Elijah, who had gone to heaven many years earlier. Jesus was different. He was from God! Something to Draw: Draw a picture of Jesus with bright, glowing clothes. Mission for the Week: Find something that glows in the dark. As you see it in a dark room, imagine how brightly Jesus must have glowed.

DIOCESE

Maine Catholic Women's Conference on April 6th in South Portland

Women from Maine and beyond are invited to join together for the Maine Catholic Women's Conference on Saturday, April 6th at the Portland Marriott at Sable Oaks on 200 Sable Oaks Drive in South Portland. The conference will feature Mass with Bishop Deeley, dynamic presentations, adoration, vendors, and more.

Gather with other women of faith to celebrate being Catholic and to be renewed in hope and the trust that God provides!

Teenagers are also encouraged to attend. This year's keynote speaker is singer, songwriter, and storyteller Kitty Cleveland. As a lay Catholic evangelist, she encourages all the baptized to join in the Church's mission to bring the Good News to the ends of the earth, starting in our own hearts, homes, and parishes. The conference will also feature a talk by Suzanne Lafreniere, the director of public policy for the Diocese of Portland. Admission is $59 per person until March 18th ($65 after March 18th), and $40 for students. Financial assistance is available. Morning and afternoon coffee breaks and lunch are included. To register or for more information, including details regarding special hotel rates, visit www.portlanddiocese.org/mcwc2019.

Catholic Women's Prayer Breakfast Set for Portland on April 27

The Magnificat Ministry Catholic Women's Prayer Breakfast will be held at the Fireside Inn & Suites, located on 81 Riverside Street, from 9 a.m. to noon. "The breakfast invites women to come together and pray, to ask for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, for those graces, so they can leave with a sense of renewal, and purpose, and stronger in their faith than when they walked through the door," said Catherine Koenig, treasurer of the Scarborough chapter.

The keynote speaker at the breakfast will be Shirley Estabrooks, a South Portland resident and member of St. John & Holy Cross Parish, who will offer a presentation entitled "From Darkness into Light." Estabrooks is a convert to the Catholic faith who grew up with nineteen brothers and sisters and neglectful parents. Following many years of trauma and hopelessness, she found a loving home in the Catholic Church. Estabrooks will candidly reveal her dramatic and gripping conversion story for the first time at the Magnificat breakfast, sharing spiritual lessons that inspire and bring hope. Retired from her career as a medical research technician, Shirley is now an affiliate of the Good Shepherd Sisters.

Tickets for the breakfast are $22 per person. For reservations, call (617) 864-3908 or visit www.magnificat-ministry.net/chapters/chapter-states-l-m/me-scarborough. Registrations for priests, deacons, and religious are complimentary, but must be reserved at (617) 864-3908.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA

The Daughters of Isabella: We wish all members and parishioners of All Saints Parish a very blessed Easter season. Join us for Mary's Way of the Cross on Friday, March 22nd at 4:30 PM at St. Charles Borromeo Church. This is a very moving and meaningful presentation of the Stations.

Attention D of I members: A gentle reminder that dues are now due! Please bring them with you to the next meeting. You may contact Ursula Desjardins for more information tomatoladyurs@yahoo.com

Our next regular meeting will be on Wednesday, April 10th at 6:15 PM at St. Charles Borromeo Church Hall.

Do something fresh for spring! Consider joining our charitable organization and connect with Catholic women in our parish. We welcome all women (16+) Please contact our Regent, Judith Michaud for an application and more information.
