Second Sunday of Easter

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today's Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name."

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God's voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

As you read and hear more about Peter, you will learn more about Jesus and yourself. Join us with author Adam Hamilton in this six-week journey, and take an in-depth look into the life, faith, and character of Simon Peter. The video sessions supplement the book and take place in the Holy Land and Rome. Groups start Wednesday, May 8th or Thursday the 9th (for 6 weeks). We will meet from 9:00-10:00 AM at St. Charles Borromeo Church Library. Please email marcy.brenner@portlanddiocese.org or me mrdleaver@gmail.com if you want a book or for more info.

A JOURNEY OF FAITH-CHRISTIAN INITIATION

We extend a warm welcome to our new members to All Saints Parish Community:

The Elect who have received their three Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil at St. John the Baptist Church: Jared Bowie, Tonya Duggan, Stephanie Mills.

The Candidates entering into Full Communion, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil at St. John the Baptist Church: Jocelyn Carr, Christopher Russell, Jon Skoglund, Deborah Tranten.

The Candidates entering into Full Communion at the Easter Vigil at St. Patrick Church: Linda Morris Long, Matthew Long.

At this time, the Neophytes (newly baptized, new growth) and the Full Communion members along with the members of the parish will come closer together as a faith community, will examine more deeply the Gospels, will share in the Eucharist and do works of charity. During this joyful time, their enthusiasm can inspire us, the parishioners, who in turn can share our experiences of faith with them. This is a wonderful time to share our ministries with them and give them the courage to begin working with us through Jesus Christ.

Belonging - Baptismal Preparation in All Saints Parish

All Saints Parish offers an opportunity for expectant parents in preparing for the baptism of their child and supporting their child in their faith development. We have created two teams, one at St. Patrick's Church and one at St. Charles Borromeo Church. The goal of the sessions and the following reflection experiences are to provide our expectant parents and their families with the support of other parishioners and our broader faith community in establishing a family that encourages growth in faith. Though the teams have structured time frames that may appear a bit different, both groups hope to offer support and a sense of belonging to not only the children to be baptized, but for the families as well. To register please call the parish office at 725-2624.

SEARCHING FOR ISOLATED SENIORS AND COMMITTED VOLUNTEERS

The Catholic Charities SEARCH Program helps isolated older adults in our communities with companionship, grocery shopping, and light household tasks. Do you know someone in need of assistance? A lonely neighbor? Or someone looking for a deeply satisfying volunteer experience? We have volunteers available in Harpswell and seniors looking for assistance in many of the vast geographic areas covered by our parish. We match volunteers one-on-one to help build long term relationships so that vulnerable adults can continue to stay in their own homes. Some just need a friendly visit and a shopping trip, others have more intense needs and are often referred to programs that can assist them along with SEARCH. For more information, contact Chris Szalay: cszalay@ccmaine.org or 837-8810.
