

Election 2020: Searching for the Common Good: An Invitation to Dialogue
Thursday Oct 15, 7:00 pm ONLINE

How do we follow our Church's call to participate in public life, form our conscience, and stand up for the dignity of each life and for the common good in the face of divisions? Join us online to hear reflections on this challenge from Dr. David O'Brien, Professor of History and Loyola Professor of Catholic Studies Emeritus at the College of the Holy Cross. Dr. O'Brien's talk will be followed by dialogue with Fr. Paul Sullivan S.J., pastor of Our Lady of Hope Parish, and time to respond to questions submitted in the chat.

Dr. O'Brien has served as President of the American Catholic Historical Association, and is the co-editor of Catholic Social Thought, a collection of church documents. He is the author of six books, including an award-winning biography of Isaac Hecker, founder of the Paulist Fathers, and Public Catholicism, a history of American Catholics and public life in a series commissioned by the Catholic bishops. His daughter is a member of our parish.

This event is sponsored by the Social Justice and Peace Commission of Our Lady of Hope parish in Portland. REGISTER HERE or email marymobrien2@gmail.com to get the link and connection information for this zoom meeting. All are welcome!
